For Immediate Release

Persolvo Data Systems COO Teresa Dodson to Speak at DBA International Annual Conference

Newport Beach, CA, February 21, 2010 – Persolvo Data Systems (<http://www.persolvodatasytems.com>) announced today that the company's Chief Operations Officer, Teresa Dodson, is scheduled to speak at the 13th Annual DBA International Conference on Tuesday, February 9, 2010 beginning at 10:45 a.m. at The Mirage Resort & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada.

As a panel member in a session entitled, Debt Settlement: How to liquidate your portfolios, Ms. Dodson will focus on how to leverage debt settlement as an effective recovery channel. Participants at this session will learn how to identify, locate and analyze hard-to-find debtors, as well as how to maximize settlements on these highly-liquid accounts.

Persolvo will also participate in the conference as an exhibitor in booth #100 where company representatives will demonstrate how the Persolvo web-based system quickly identifies lost settlement opportunities, significantly lowers the cost of collections and increases liquidity rates.

About Persolvo Data Systems

Persolvo Data Systems is the first patent-pending system to aggregate account information on debtors enrolled in voluntary workout programs with leading debt settlement companies and law firms. Persolvo's web-based settlement application allows creditors and collectors to locate debtors enrolled in debt settlement programs, analyze their account information to uncover highly-liquid settlement opportunities, and settle large numbers of accounts online with hundreds of debt settlement companies using Persolvo's hosted settlement application. The Persolvo system is the largest database of aggregated debt settlement accounts available today and provides the most accurate and up-to-date information, including settlement savings balances, on debtors enrolled in debt settlement programs.
